RELEASE: BOSTON - Mr. John Hout of [REDACTED]

Springfield, Virginia,

is to attend the 44th session of Advanced Management Program, Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration.
Mr. Hoyt is an Executive Officer with the C.I.A.

The Advanced Management Program, one of the oldest senior management development courses conducted by a university, has been in continuous operation since its beginning in 1943. There are no specific educational prerequisites for admission. All participants are nominated and sponsored by their companies and have been selected by the Admissions Board of the AMP on the basis of demonstrated ability, leadership qualities, and adaptability in their careers. The 13-week course is particularly designed for men between 36 and 50 years who are now in top-management positions or who are likely to be there in the near future. The program offers a concentrated course of study in six major areas of prime interest to today's top management, and uses the case method of instruction. This session of the program will last from September 9, 1963, to December 6, 1963.
